PROBABLE CAUSE STATEMENT

On December 19, 2007, Border Patrol Agent M. Rivera was assigned to the Murrieta Border Patrol area of responsibility. Agent Rivera was observing vehicle traffic at the intersection of Old Highway 395 and W. Rainbow Valley Boulevard. This area of the I-15 corridor is located approximately 75 miles north of the international border and one mile south of the I-15 Border Patrol Checkpoint in Temecula California.

At approximately 8:35 p.m., Agent Rivera observed a white Chevrolet truck exit the North I-15 freeway and hesitate at the top of the onramp. Agent Rivera observed the vehicle initially enter the intersection as if to travel north onto I-15, but then the vehicle turned west on Rainbow Valley Boulevard. Rainbow Valley Boulevard has no outlet for motorists other than to re-enter the southbound lanes of I-15 or enter the California Highway Patrol truck scales.

Agent Rivera began to follow the vehicle. Agent Rivera believed the vehicle was attempting to avoid the I-15 Checkpoint. Agent Rivera performed a vehicle stop on the white Chevrolet truck on W. Rainbow Valley Boulevard and the I-15 south onramp.

Agent Rivera approached the vehicle and identified himself as a United States Border Patrol Agent and questioned the driver as to his identity and country of citizenship. The driver later identified as the defendant Raul FIERRO-Leal, stated that he was a citizen of Mexico. Agent Rivera asked the defendant if he had any immigration documents and the defendant stated that he did not have any with him and admitted that he was present in the United States illegally. Agent Rivera arrested the defendant and transported him to the Murrieta Border Patrol Station for processing.

Routine record checks of the defendant revealed a criminal and immigration history. The defendant's record was determined by a comparison of his criminal record and the defendant's current fingerprint card. Official immigration records of the Department of Homeland Security revealed the defendant was previously deported to Mexico on October 25, 2004 through Nogales, Arizona. These same records show that the defendant has not applied for permission from the Attorney General of the United States or his designated successor, the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, to return to the United States after being removed.

The defendant was advised of his Miranda Rights which he stated he understood and was willing to answer questions without having an attorney present. The defendant again admitted to being a citizen and national of Mexico without having any immigration documents that would allow him to enter or remain in the United States.
